

Ms. Stefanie Fox-Manno was appointed as the Chief Academic Officer of the Pittsgrove Township School District by the Board of Education at its May 3, 2018 meeting.

She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in English and graduated summa cum laude in 2002. Thereafter, she acquired her Master of Arts in Writing from Rowan University.

Ms. Fox-Manno has worked for the last five years as the Humanities Instructional Supervisor at the Kingsway Regional School District where she supervised grades 7-12

English–Language Arts, English as a Second Language and Media Specialists. In addition to writing curricula, she assisted in revising and realigning at-risk programs, including Intervention and Referral Services and Title 1 Targeted Assistance Programs. She also helped design professional development for middle and high school teachers of all subject areas in the Kingsway School District.

Ms. Fox-Manno was recently accepted into Harvard University’s graduate level Data Wise certification program where she will also serve as both a Teaching Fellow and Facilitator during leadership institutes at Harvard.

Prior to her years as a supervisor, Ms. Fox-Manno worked as a 7th and 8th grade English-Language Arts teacher at Kingsway from 2002-2013 and as a Writing Skills Adjunct Professor at Camden County College from 2007-2012. Throughout her tenure, she earned the Distinguished Service Award in 2016 as an Instructional Supervisor, the Exemplary Secondary Educator Award for the State of New Jersey in 2012 and Teacher of the Year Award in 2007.