

Ms. Garrison currently serves as the District's Chief Academic Officer. She began this position in August 2015. One of her primary responsibilities includes working with teachers and administrators to provide the students of the District with rigorous and relevant curricula and instruction that adheres to the standards set forth by the State of New Jersey and the Pittsgrove Township Board of Education. Ms. Garrison strives to provide the staff with the necessary materials and supports to foster student achievement and success. She also serves as the Director of the School Choice and Title I Programs.

Prior to joining the Pittsgrove Township School District, Ms. Garrison was an administrator at the Millville Public School District since the 2005-2006 school year. She worked as the 6th grade Vice-Principal at Lakeside Middle School for the past five years. Before becoming a Vice-Principal, she was the Career and Technical Education (CTE) Department Chair (Supervisor) at both Millville

Memorial High School and the Millville Senior High School. Prior to pursuing education administration, Ms. Garrison worked at both Cumberland Regional High School and Mainland Regional High School as a business/technology teacher. During her teaching career, she was actively involved in athletics and extracurricular clubs. She coached both girls' tennis and softball, and served in the following roles: assistant advisor for the Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), theatrical business manager, and assistant stage crew supervisor.

Ms. Garrison earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration: Accounting, post-baccalaureate teacher certification in Business Education, and a Master of Arts degree in Education Administration from Rowan University. She is currently working on her Doctoral degree in Educational Leadership at Liberty University. Ms. Garrison is a current resident of Pittsgrove Township and a proud graduate of Arthur P. Schalick High School.
